Shabbat Babysitting Co-op

All babysitting co-op "shifts" are from 10am - 12pm during Shabbat morning services in the Rosen Family Room. Children being supervised should be in the 0-5 age range, and the one parent of the family of any child being provided babysitting services must have signed up for a babysitting shift for the 2011-2012 session.

Rules & Policies for Participation

- 1. One of the parents of each of the families that receive babysitting services must sign up to volunteer to babysit during one of the dates listed for the 2011-2012 session.
- 2. Any parent that drops off their child for babysitting services, must indicate to the volunteers where in the synagogue they are sitting to ensure they can be easily found if needed.
- 3. Parents must agree not to leave the synagogue while their child is receiving babysitting services in the Rosen Family Room.
- 4. Food products should not be brought into the Rosen Family Room. Snacks will be provided. Drinks with tight fitting, spill-proof lids may be brought into the room. Please label any cups/bottles with the child's name.
- 5. Any toys brought into the Rosen Family Room should be appropriately labeled with the child's initials, and are brought into the room at the parents own risk. Temple Beth Tzedek is not responsible for lost/broken personal toys.
- 6. Parents must agree to pick their child up from the Rosen Family Room by 12pm.
- 7. If you cannot make it for a babysitting shift that you signed up for, you must find a suitable, adult replacement. If this information is known to you prior to Shabbat, please email Karen at kmarks613@verizon.net or Sheree at sheree\_singer@yahoo.com with the information regarding your replacement.
